Banking & Institutional Lending

Our law firm has a strong and well-respected practice in banking and finance law. We represent a variety of financial institutions, from small community banks to regional lenders in all phases of their commercial lending practices. We also represent our clients in litigation arising from all phases of commercial and real estate lending transactions, including negotiation, documentation, closing and administration of the lending transaction.

Our representation of financial institutions also extends to litigation matters. We have experience in representing financial institutions as plaintiffs and as defendants in lawsuits arising from commercial lending transactions, mortgage foreclosures, unsecured collateral suits, lender liability claims, creditor representation within bankruptcy matters and judgment collection matters. We strive to provide our banking clients with a full service, one-stop law firm that can provide our clients with superior representation in every facet of their lending activities.
