Judgment Collection

Treiser Collins has experience with all stages of the debt collection process that enables our attorneys to offer sound advice and efficient service in the recovery of troubled debts after entry of judgment. The goal in post-judgment collections is to identify, attach and recover assets, or in some cases assets that have already been transferred, by the judgment debtor. Our Firm's commercial debt collection attorneys work to achieve these objectives on behalf of local judgment creditors, national corporations with claims against debtors with assets in Florida, creditors in foreign countries who need to domesticate and enforce claims against Florida debtors, and creditors of all kinds who need advice against proceeding against transferees and successor entities in Florida.

If you have an out of state judgment and are interested in domesticating that Judgment in Florida, please visit our website regarding domesticating your foreign Judgment in Florida.
