

Firm Profile

Mission Statement

Our mission at Treiser Collins is to provide you with exactly what we would expect if we were the client: quality legal counsel, individualized attention, the highest level of professionalism and a commitment to serve your needs to the fullest. These are not idle promises. These are the rules by which we live and work and the principles we follow to expand our reputation and our practice.

You will find that at Treiser Collins there is always an experienced attorney ready to meet your specific needs. The trial attorneys of Treiser Collins are experienced in litigating business, commercial, real estate, banking, insurance, personal injury, complex divorce and contract cases. Our transactional attorneys are experienced in business, trust and estate matters, as well as commercial and residential real estate matters, including real estate closings, title insurance, like-kind exchanges, and all types of condominium related matters.

About Us

The firm's founder, Mr. Richard M. Treiser, first began practicing in Naples, Florida in 1981. Through the years, he has witnessed the rapid growth of Naples from a little known resort town to a national and international vacation and tourist destination. Mr. Treiser has established himself as a prominent member of the community through his civic and charitable work and his representation of the business community. He remains active within the community and works tirelessly to represent the interests of local businesses and individuals.

Mr. Thomas Collins joined the firm in 1991 and has also established himself within the business community through his representation of a number of local and national business interests with local concerns.

The firm has developed through the years and has evolved its present makeup. Through it all, Mr. Treiser and Mr. Collins have worked together to create a firm atmosphere that offers a collegial environment for its lawyers and staff while maintaining the quality its clients have come to expect over the years. Treiser Collins stands ready to meet your legal needs.

